

Roanoke County homeschoolers have a new option for high-quality at-home instruction for high school students:

RCPSOnline Academy

Roanoke County Public Schools is proud to announce a new option for Roanoke County homeschooled high school students - the RCPSOnline Academy. Building upon 16 years of providing online instruction, the RCPSOnline Academy provides a pathway to graduation for students in grades 9-12 seeking both standard and advanced diplomas. We offer 60+ classes including both core and elective choices that will satisfy the graduation requirements put forth by the Virginia Department of Education.

A full time RCPSOnline Academy student will have a schedule that looks more like college, or a 4x4 block schedule. The student will take three or four classes per semester. Students who are enrolled full-time in the RCPSOnline Academy are eligible to participate in VHSL athletic and academic activities and school-related events such as prom, homecoming and clubs.

Best of all, Roanoke County residents can attend the RCPSOnline Academy full-time tuition-free and we will provide a laptop!***

(individual courses are available at $400 per course)
